

Andy & Denise

Acoustic Singer/Songwriters

BIOGRAPHY

Andy & Denise are acoustic singer/songwriters who feature well crafted songs, compelling harmonies, and Andy's intricate guitar playing which often adds a 'third voice' to their songs. They are happy to announce the release of two new CD's: "Covers" and Andy's solo acoustic instrumental CD "The Long Walk Home". These join their two previous releases "Go" and "Sunlight In Goodbye".

Andy & Denise are from the Philadelphia area and have been performing along the east coast for a number of years. They have played in coffeehouse series, house concerts, colleges and music festivals including The Minstrel Coffeehouse (NJ), Godfrey Daniel's (PA), 333 Coffeehouse (MD), Eddie's Attic (GA), The Point (PA), The Six String Cafe (NC), The Bluebird Cafe (TN), The Goodfolk Coffeehouse (CT), Moore Music in the House (MD), Delaware Friends of Folk Coffeehouse, the Brierfield Music Festival (AL), Delmarva Folk Festival (DE) and the Forksville Folk Festival (PA). Whatever the setting they are fun and engaging to watch!

Andy Fox cut his teeth on the Boston music scene, playing in a number of bands while attending Berklee College of Music. Denise O'Brien moved to New York to pursue acting and has performed in numerous commercials, soaps and theater. She has also created a line of handmade items under the label D'Pholk Crafts.

Andy & Denise also run their own music recording studio. Through their combined talents they are able to produce, record and mix music for other artists. Some of the projects they have worked on are "Engine" by We're About 9, "God's Poet Now" by Erik Balkey, and "Another Tourist" by Eliot Bronson.

"Denise has one of those voices that sounds like she is smiling as she sings. Together, their equally strong voices often cross gender-defining pitch boundaries; a pleasant change that not all duos can handle. Listeners comfortable with David Wilcox and Eddie From Ohio will make familiar guitar and vocal connections."

"The charisma between the two is what steals the show."
